a Actual Cash Value

The value of the insured property, for which no more specific conditions have been set out, will be the actual cash value at the time of loss or damage, but not exceeding what it would then cost to repair or replace with material of like kind and quality.

Various factors will be considered in the determination of actual cash value. The factors to be considered include, but are not be limited to, “replacement cost” less any depreciation and market value. In determining depreciation, consideration will be given to the condition of the property immediately before the damage, the resale value, the normal life expectancy of the property and obsolescence.

b Replacement Cost - Applicable only to those items shown in the Declarations as subject to “Replacement Cost” coverage.

The Insurer agrees to amend the basis of settlement from actual cash value to “Replacement Cost” subject to the following provisions:

- i. the damaged property to be repaired or replaced with due diligence and dispatch;
- ii. settlement on a “Replacement Cost” basis shall be made only when “Replacement” has been effected by the Insured and in no event shall it exceed the amount actually and necessarily expended for such “Replacement”;
- iii. failing compliance by the Insured with any of the foregoing provisions, settlement shall be made as if this endorsement had not been in effect;
- iv. any other insurance effected by or on behalf of the Insured in respect of the perils insured against by this Form on the property to which this endorsement is applicable shall be on the basis of “Replacement Cost” as defined herein;

- v. this endorsement applies separately to each item(s) listed above.

This coverage is subject to the Co-insurance Clause (as stated on the Declaration Page) requiring a stated percentage of insurance to value to be maintained; the value for the purpose of applying said Co-insurance Clause shall be calculated on "replacement cost" without deduction for depreciation.

In the event that new property of like kind and quality is not obtainable, new property which is as similar as possible to that damaged or destroyed and which is capable of performing the same function shall be deemed to be new property of like kind and quality for the purposes of this endorsement.

Settlement on a "Replacement Cost" basis does not apply to:

- i. stock or customer's goods;
- ii. patterns, dies, moulds;
- iii. paintings, etchings, pictures, tapestries, statuary, marbles, bronzes, antique furniture, rare books, antique silver, porcelain, rare glassware, bric-a-brac or other articles of art, rarity or antiquity;
- iv. manuscripts and records meaning books of account, drawings, card index systems and other records, media, data storage devices, and program devices for electronic electro-mechanical data processing or for electronically controlled equipment;
